1. Did you file the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid)?_____Yes_____No If you did not file the FAFSA, please explain why:

_____

_____

2. If you filed the FAFSA, you should have received a Student Aid Report (SAR) on which you will find your Expected Family Contribution (EFC) located on the front page in the upper right. The federal government determines your EFC based on information you provided in the FAFSA and is the amount your family is expected to pay toward college expenses. Your EFC is NOT a figure that your family comes up with and is not the amount your family thinks they can or will pay for your education. If you didn't receive your SAR, you should call the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-433-3243 (select "Application Status") to request a duplicate.

What is your family's EFC?_____

If you do not have an EFC (whether because you don't know it or because you didn't file the FAFSA), then please complete the following questions to help donors determine your financial need:
